Did you know?

Our Spokane Valley Adventist School (SVAS) has spent some time this week focusing on health! Students enjoyed presentations on various topics, including personal hygiene, dental care by dental hygienist Hanna Evans, who is mom to two of our students, and eye health by Dr. Kristi Woesner. Other presentations are scheduled for future weeks including mental health and first aid. A big thank you to those who are volunteering to help our kids learn how to care for their bodies!!
